The University of Dayton's School of Education Lecture Series concludes its 1965-1966 program, Monday, February 21 at 4:00 p.m. in the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union with a lecture on Group Guidance.

"An Action Approach to Group Guidance: A Dialogue" will be the topic of Dr. Marion F. Belka, S.M., Vice President of St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas and Sister Marion Hosinske, S.S.M., Ph.D., assistant professor at St. Louis University.

Dr. Belka and Hosinski are co-authors of several books on the subject of group guidance and are listed among the most prominent authorities in the field.

Dr. Belka has served as President of the Texas Personnel and Guidance Association and is presently President of the National Catholic Guidance Conference.

Dr. Hosinski is currently teaching in the School of Nursing and the School of Education at St. Louis University.

The public is invited to attend this free lecture.
